"I'm praying for you." Five simple words that meant so much to me during my recent heart surgery. I want to encourage each of you not to just say you will pray, but do it. It really makes a difference.

Remember God is listening!

Synchronization: syn·chro·ni·za·tion

ˌsɪŋɡkrəneɪˈzɑːʃ(ə)n, ˌsɪŋɡkrəˌnɪˈzɑːʃ(ə)n/

Noun - the operation or activity of two or more things at the same time or rate.

Ever feel out of sync? I was out of synchronization in worship this past week. At the end of the service, it was time for the invitation song and I was not planning on playing the introduction of the song. For reasons beyond my control, I was the pinch hitter and found myself leading the song. I went blank and forgot how to play a song that I have played for years. Billy stepped in to save the day and it got worse. It took Billy and me a verse and two choruses before we could get it to sound like it should.

When things are out of sync, nothing feels right. Sometimes you don't know why or how to fix it, but you just know something is wrong. I'm not talking about music anymore. We are made to live in sync with God, with ourselves, and with others. When one of those gets out of sync you can feel it.

On some level, we know what it is to be in sync with God, but what does it mean to be in sync with yourself? Is this some psychoanalytical mumbo jumbo? No. It simply means that we are called to love – show love. Here's the thing; if I do not love myself, how can I ever love others in the way that I should?

The Bible tells of an encounter Jesus had with a woman at the well. She was there avoiding others because she had secrets.

“Jesus..., sat wearily beside the well about noontime. Soon a Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, ‘Please give me a drink.’ He was alone at the time because his disciples had gone into the village to buy some food.

The woman was surprised, for Jews refuse to have anything to do with Samaritans. She said to Jesus, ‘You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan woman. Why are you asking me for a drink?’

Jesus replied, ‘If you only knew the gift God has for you and who you are speaking to, you would ask me, and I would give you living water.’

‘But sir, you don’t have a rope or a bucket,’ she said, ‘and this well is very deep. Where would you get this living water? And besides, do you think you’re greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us this well? How can you offer better water than he and his sons and his animals enjoyed?’ Jesus replied, ‘Anyone who drinks this water will soon become thirsty again. But those who drink the water I give will never be thirsty again. It becomes a fresh, bubbling spring within them, giving them eternal life.’

‘Please, sir,’ the woman said, ‘give me this water! Then I’ll never be thirsty again, and I won’t have to come here to get water’” (John 4:3-15 NLT).

You can imagine this is a very confusing moment for this woman. This man enters the scene and offers eternal life. Most of us think that eternal life is something that happens when we die. Jesus sees it differently, eternal life begins now! Jesus is letting her know that there is more to life than how she is living now, out of rhythm with God. There's something "off" in her life and Jesus knows it. This woman is wearing a mask.

“Go and get your husband,’ Jesus told her. ‘I don’t have a husband,’ the woman replied. Jesus said, ‘You’re right! You don’t have a husband for you have had five husbands, and you aren’t even married to the man you’re living with now’” (John 4:15-18 NLT).

Jesus says, “Life isn't working for you, is it? Let Me offer you another way, the way you were created to live.” Life after death is just a portion of what He is offering her. He is implying she needs synchronization with herself now—something she can only have when she is in sync with God and others. Sin got this woman out of sync with God, and with herself. She thought "out of sync" was the only option she had, leading to falling out of sync with herself.

To be in sync with yourself is to love yourself. When you don't love yourself, you naturally begin not to love God. We can try to hide from others, but you know you can't hide from God. Everything you've said, done, or thought—He sees and doesn't run away.

If the sync with you and God is off, maybe it's because you don't like you. Maybe it's not the person you are mad at, maybe it's not with your job, spouse, kids, or boss; maybe the issue is...well...you?
